HOME ELECTIONS.

NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES

THIRTY-TWO ARE UNOPPOSED.

THREE-CORNERED CONTESTS IN LONDON.

(Reuter's Service.)

LONDON, October 19.

Conservatives	532
Constitutionalists	7
Liberals	341
Labour	501
Cooperatives	9
Communists	8
Independents	12
Republicans	7
Sinn Féiners	1
Nationalists	1
Prohibitionists	1

Total ... 1420

Nominations from the combined Universities and the University of Wales have yet to be made. Twenty-three of the 228 three cornered fights are in London electoral boroughs.

A Christian Pacifist and a Liberal have been nominated for the University of Wales, making the total number of candidates 1422.

POSITION OF FRANCE.

M. HERRIOT WELL PLEASED.

"NO HOSTILE PREJUDICE"

(Reuter's Service.)

BOULGNE, October 20.

In a speech at the Radical-Socialist Party Congress to-day, M. Herriot claimed that as a result of Government's endeavours to end the isolation of France, her position was now unassailable. He could discern no hostile prejudice against France among the nations gathered at Geneva. Relations with Germany herself were easier as the first stage of Franco-German economic negotiations showed.

GERMAN REPUBLICAN SPIRIT.

The Republican spirit had won certain successes in Germany, but France cannot yet feel reassured. Germany still seemed to hesitate between two paths. The Nationalists were busy militarily preparing youths, while associations of ex-soldiers remained in relation with the Reichswehr. Certain fees almost smacked of mobilisation manoeuvres. He hoped the democratic spirit would finally prevail.

France, at any rate, had sounded the call to peace; she was ready to resume relations with Russia. M. Herriot placed financial reform in the forefront of Home policy.

MOSQUE IN LONDON.

FOUNDATION STONE LAID.

KHALIF'S HOPES FOR "TOLERATION."

(Reuter's Service.)

LONDON, October 19.

The foundation stone, of the first mosque to be built in London, was laid this afternoon at South Fields, Wandsworth.

The ceremony was performed by Kalif Atul Masih, head of the Ahmadiyya Islamic community, in the presence of the Japanese Ambassador and others.

The building will cost about £10,000, but at present only the mirab, or praying place will be built.

The Khalif Atul, in performing the ceremony, hoped that the spirit of toleration and large-heartedness, which the mosque would create, would help to establish peace, amity and goodwill among men.

MOTOR FATALITY.

DEATH OF COUNT ZBOROWSKY.

CAR TURNS TURTLE.

FAMOUS RACING DRIVER KILLED.

(Reuter's Service.)

MILAN, October 20.

In the competition here to-day for the Grand Prix of Italy, the Mercedes car, driven by Count Zborowsky, the famous racing motorist, turned turtle. Count Zborowsky was killed and his mechanic injured.

SPANISH C.-IN-C.

PROCLAMATION BY DE RIVERA.

OBJECT OF HIS MISSION.

(Reuter's Service.)

TETUAN, October 20.

On the occasion of his appointment as Commander-in-Chief of the Spanish Army in Africa, General Primo de Rivera, has issued a proclamation to the troops.

He declares that after the necessary efforts have been made to save the honour of the Spanish arms and the lives of the soldiers, the territories will be arranged so that Spain will accomplish her mission without detriment to her national prestige.

Spain will soon restore the situation; then the time will have arrived for necessary legislation. Meanwhile no effort must be spared to end the Moroccan problem.

IMPORTANCE OF GERMANY.

SPEECH BY STRESEMANN.

(Reuter's Service.)

BERLIN, October 19.

Dr. Stresemann, Foreign Minister, in a speech at Frankfurt-on-Main, declared that all the States represented on the Council of the League of Nations had pronounced in favour of Germany having a permanent seat on the Council, but the point still to be discussed was that Germany could not participate in wars or a blockade under the orders of the League so long as she was the only disarmed State amid neighbours armed to the teeth.

FLOODS IN INDIA.

TERRIBLE LOSSES REPORTED.

(Reuter's Service.)

SIMLA, October 19.

Reports from the outlying districts show that many hundreds of villages were swept away in the recent Ganges and Jumna floods.

There was a heavy loss of life, and enormous crop and cattle losses.

Thousands who sought refuge in the trees were attacked by snakes.

The floods have had the wholesome effect of destroying plague rats, but malaria and dengue fevers become rife as the waters subside.

Relief measures are in full swing.

REPARATIONS COMMISSION.

AGENT-GENERAL REACHES PARIS.

MR. GILBERT BOUND FOR BERLIN.

(Reuter's Service.)

POSED AS FOOTBALLER.

FULL PENALTY FOR FALSE LOVER.

London, August 31:—Heartless deception in the name of a sportsman prominent in the public eye was revealed at Hull. How she was hoodwinked into receiving attentions from a man whom she believed to be Joe Kitchen, a professional footballer attached to the Hull City Club, was described by Miss Maud B. Leighton, a domestic servant, living in Beverley-road.
Before the magistrates appeared Joe Simpson, of Park-grove, charged with obtaining from £10 to £100
by false pretences. According to Mr.
G. T. Mainprize, prosecuting, prisoner met prosecutrix in September, 1922, and introduced himself as Joe Kitchen, of the Hull City F.C.
He made out that he was single and was earning £6 a week. At that time Kitchen had won for himself considerable fame as an international footballer, and his name was constantly appearing in the newspapers. Simpson, in order to impress Miss Leighton, claimed that these notices referred to him.
In reality, added Mr. Mainprize, he was married. For some time Miss Leighton and he kept company, and one night he asked her if she had any money. He explained that he wanted to invest in brewery shares. He accompanied Miss Leighton to the bank, where she drew out £10 and entrusted it to him. Prisoner told the bank manager what he intended to do with the money, and when the manager remarked, "I can invest it," Simpson replied, "No, give me the money." A few weeks later, when she asked him about the shares, he grew very angry and declared that they were all right.
Up to September, 1923, prosecutrix received about 35 letters from prisoner, most of which were signed, "Your loving sweetheart, Joe." He told her that he was getting a trainer's job at Rotherham, and had his eye on a nice little house where they would be very happy together. Shortly afterwards he disappeared, and nothing was heard of him until a few weeks ago. When arrested he stated, "I admit I did wrong. I spent the money. I intended to pay it back." Miss Leighton, when asked if she wished to be seated in the witness-box, replied, "No, I will stand up and face it out."
She told the Bench, "I put my trust in him, believing him to be Joe Kitchen." Prisoner pleaded for an opportunity of paying the money back, and expressed his regret. The clerk, addressing him, remarked: "You are a heartless scoundrel, making promises of marriage, and defrauding a single woman, when all the time you were married." Simpson was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, with hard labour.
"We cannot give you more, or else we would," remarked the clerk.

Hungry—Yet Afraid To Eat!

Such is the plight of thousands.
They dread mealtimes, for they know that suffering will follow;
they know that, diet as they will,
digestive disorder is remorseless, and it has them in its grip. The pity of it is that such suffering is quite unnecessary, as any doctor can tell you. A little Bismarck Magnesia, taken in water (or a couple of the tablets swallowed) will instantly neutralise the harmful acid which gives rise to the trouble, and thus prevent all possibility of discomfort. You'll suffer no more from stomach troubles or weakness of the vital organs if you go to the nearest chemist, get a package of this sure cure, and take as directed. Remember, a dose of Bismarck Magnesia will stop the worst attack of stomach pain instantly, and you've only to take the preparation for a very little while to feel a different person altogether —healthier, happier and brighter.

Amstel Series Gold Coast

"All In—Down and Out"

With the perspiration hanging on his eyebrows, "Are you SURE it's Amstel?" "There's nothing else and nothing better," was the reply, as the yellow-gold beer flowed into the glass.
Cool, clear, sparkling beer is the only drink to quench the Coaster's thirst.

A dull, flat, tasteless drink cannot give relief to a dried-out throat, so why order any other, when all you need to say is "Amstel," to bring the beer which looks as good as it tastes.

Don't merely order "a beer."
Say "AMSTEL" beer, a little trouble giving a great reward.

"Amstel"—the beer that is brewed for abroad.

HONGKONG, Monday, Oct. 20, 1924.

AN OMINOUS CALM.

The defeat of the Merchant Volunteers by Dr. Sun Yat-sen's mercenary soldiers last week programme that comparatively few Cantonese units will remain faithful to the Chinese Bolshevik after last week's slaughter.

Already news is to hand of squabbles between the Cantonese and Yunnanese "braves" over the spoils from the massacre. Quarrels may soon lead to open conflict and, with the full knowledge of the approach of General Chan Kwing-ming, with a force of 40,000 men, it is possible that dissatisfaction in Sun's Army may lead to attempts at desertion—all factors tending to make the crisis more acute. The despatch of 50 men from the K.E.O. 2/4 Grenadiers by the s.s. "Kinshan" last night indicates that further trouble is feared and in view of the anti-British pronouncements that have recently been made in Dr. Sun Yat-sen's official organ, it is well that steps should be taken in preparation for another attempt on the Customs if not an attempt to set fire to the Shamien.

The present calm is ominous.

Sir Percy Scott.

The British Navy has lost an outstanding figure by the death of Admiral Sir Percy Scott. His name may not be so easily recalled to mind by the general public as the names of younger officers, for the only work which he directed in the Great War was in its earlier stages. He retired a year before the outbreak of war, but was prevailed on for a time to take charge of the gunnery defences of London against aircraft attacks. This he was well qualified to do, for he was the inventor of various appliances for improvement in heavy gun shooting, and was responsible for the building of the gun-carriages which were used to transport his vessels' armament overland to the relief of Ladysmith, and was the initiator of the system of director firing. Such is the fickleness of public opinion that it is probable that his quarrel with Lord Charles Bessborough will last longer in the memory than any of his considerable achievements. This was when the fleet was in readiness for the visit of the German Emperor and Sir Percy signalled to his senior officer, who was in command of H.M.S. "Roxburgh," that to look pretty appeared to be of more importance than gunnery.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

On Saturday, motor-car No. 914 accidentally collided with a coolie in Des Voeux Road West. The coolie's right arm was injured.

The Silk which left here by the P. & O. s.s. "Kaisar-i-Hind" on September 20, was delivered in Marseilles on the October 17. The time in transit was 27 days.

Mr. Cuthill, head watchman of the Kowloon Docks, has reported to the Police that an apprentice boiler-maker fell into the harbour off the Kowloon Dock and was drowned.

Losing his balance from a plank strung alongside the s.s. "Flint," which was having its paint chipped off, a workman fell into the harbour during the week-end and was drowned.

A fine of $10 or 14 days' hard labour in default was imposed on an unlicensed hawk for offering for sale news circulars without a licence at Cooke Street, Hung-hom, on Sunday. The case came before the Magistrate at the Kowloon Court this morning.

Armed with revolvers and daggers, four robbers broke into No. 36 H. Shanghai Street on Saturday where they drove the inmates into one cubicle. They then gagged their victims with towels and bound their limbs with wire. After ransacking the flat for half an hour the gang assembled the loot valued at $94 and made off.

A Chinese amah employed by Mr. N. Bejonjee of No. 70, Queen's Road Central, has died in hospital, presumably from injuries received through falling from a verandah into the street below. She was found unconscious and removed to hospital in the ambulance, but died before admittance. According to the report she was last seen working on the verandah.

What with a Canton reign of terror, the telegraphic interruption, and vernacular news papers holiday, Chinese extra specials have been selling like the proverbial hot cakes. Many of the vendors were without licences. When one was prosecuted at the Magistrate's Court this morning, Mr. R. E. Lindell remarked: "In these times of stress everybody is anxious to know what is going on and let the market go with caution."

Above is a picture of Mr. Owen D. Young, American lawyer and member of the committee to investigate the possibilities of the German Budget. Mr. Seymour Gilbert, the permanent Agent-General for Reparations, will confer with Mr. Young in Paris, before continuing his journey to Berlin.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SEARCHING PASSENGERS.

[To the Editor of the China Mail.]

Sir,—On last Saturday night, I returned to Hongkong from Kowloon by the Star Ferry at about eleven o'clock. There was quite a large number of European who were fellow passengers with me on board the same launch. When I reached the exit from the pier, I found two Indian policemen who insisted on "searching" all the Asiatic passengers, while the European passengers were allowed to go past uninterfered with. I grant that officers of the law have the right to "search" every "suspect." But it was certainly remarkable that all Asiatics, no matter how favourable their external appearance was, should have been thus "suspected" and "searched," while all Europeans, even those who presented a poor external appearance, should have been passed by as above all suspicion. I do not of course, mean to suggest that these policemen have been specially instructed to "search" Asiatics alone. But, if policemen persist in "searching" only Asiatics, and if, as I am given to understand, most of them have been doing so lately, Asiatics of this Colony cannot help coming to the unpleasant conclusion that the police have been instructed to "suspect" Asiatics only. Such a conclusion is certainly undesirable and I hope that the proper authorities will see that this obnoxious racial discrimination in "searching" is not practised any longer and that they will make it clear to all officers of the law that a white skin does not put a man beyond suspicion and exempt him from being "searched."

Yours etc.

PIRATES ACTIVE.

"HING WAN" REFUSES TO BE SEARCHED.

ESCORTED TO PAKKAI.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Pakkai, Kowloon, October 10. As is customary when there is a crisis in Canton, pirates are once more active in this part of the river delta.

Last week the steam launch "Hing Wan" (which, by the way, is easily distinguished by her two funnels) was escorted into port by the Customs cruiser "Pak Tan." The "Hing Wan" acts as tow to the junk trading between Hong-kong and Shikoi and it is stated that she refused to be searched by a motor-boat which flew the Customs flag. Further, it is rumoured that the "Hing Wan" (or the junk) opened fire on the motor patrol boat and that a misunderstanding arose.

On Saturday, the "Hing Wan" was still detained by the Customs. Since the days when the gunboat "Kong Koo" was commandeered by pirates and then ran amok in the delta to finish up with several lakhs in loot, it is understood that merchant craft can refuse to be searched in mid-stream but, if called up to do so, they are to go to the nearest Customs station for bona fides to be established. It is thought that the "Hing Wan" may have claimed this privilege.

The Customs cruiser "Pak Tan" referred to by our correspondent has proved a terror to pirates, having been instrumental in rounding up a "lunch" spirited away from the Colony, and in the capture of a gang of pirates who ultimately met their fate in Chinshan, off Macao. The "Pak Tan" fought a duel with a pirate launch and shot the latter to such effect that it sank in Matal waters. —Ed.—

NEW CHIEF JUSTICE.

OFFICIAL WELCOME FROM LEGAL PROFESSION.

FELICITOUS SPEECHES.

Be-wigged barristers and solicitors, some gowned and others not, attended in full strength the official welcome given by the legal profession in the Supreme Court this morning to the new Chief Justice of the Colony, Sir Henry Gwynne Gollan. This immediately preceded the Criminal Sessions over which His Lordship presided.

Speech of Welcome.

Mr. C. G. Alabaster K. C. said: In the absence of the learned Attorney-General and of Sir Henry Pollock, the privilege devolves on me of extending to Your Lordship the Chief Justice a cordial welcome from both branches of the legal profession. We trust that your sojourn in the Colony may last for many years and we look forward to the continuation of the happy relationship between Bench and Bar which has been such a pleasant feature of our lives here. In the administration of justice, Your Lordship may rest assured of our loyal co-operation.

Chief Justice Replies.

Sir Henry replied as follows: I thank you for the cordial terms in which on behalf of the legal profession you have welcomed me here to-day. The distinctive feature of the British system is that all branches of law and its administration are in the hands of the legal profession and, to that principal, I think, you may attribute the traditional relations which exist between the Bench and the Bar. I am sure that nothing makes more for the same administration of law than that these relations should continue; and not only, therefore, for personal reasons, but for reasons of public importance, I thank you for the promise of support whilst I have to fulfil the duties of the Chief Justiceship of the Colony.

WAR IN CHINA.

WU PEI-FU REPORTS VICTORY.

CHUMENKOW RECAPTURED.

(Reuter's Service.)

Peking, October 20. Marshal Wu Pei-fu, this morning, telegraphed to the Government announcing that Chiumenkw had been completely recaptured.

Reuter's special correspondent at Chinwangtao telegraphs that 12 Government and 10 war vessels are concentrated there under instructions to proceed to Antung.

It is reported that Marshal Wu Pei-fu has made satisfactory arrangements with the South Manchurian Railway, the nature of which, however, has not been disclosed.

VIOLENT FIGHTING.

The following communiqué was issued by Marshal Wu Pei-fu, under date of October 18, received through cable and headed to the "China Mail" for publication.

Fighting is extremely violent on the central fronts along Shanhaikuan, where our troops, for the last twenty-four hours, have repulsed a series of terrific attacks from the rebels.

The detachment of rebel troops who have worked their advance from Kiumun, by desperate struggle for more than ten days, have been cut off by the 14th and 24th divisions of the national forces. They are expected to surrender in a few days.

According to reports from our Mukden secret agents, the rebel leader Chang Tso-lin is seriously baffled with the problem of supply of ammunition, which is beginning to show signs of shortage.

On the Jehol front, according to reports, our troops under General Chang Chik-kiang are in process of establishing connections with the troops that have occupied Chih-feng to make a combined move on Chienping. Also several divisions of our troops have arrived at Ping-chuan in their advance on Ling-yuan. We expect to recapture these two places in a few days.

Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang, commander-in-chief of the third army, wired on the 17th inst. that a body of enemy troops was defeated in the vicinity of Langkanfang and had retired in the direction of Chienping.

RIFLE SHOOTING.

EXCITING MATCH AT TAIKOO.

The Taikoo Rifle Club were indeed fortunate in having splendid weather on the occasion of their opening shoot of the season, yesterday, at the Taikoo range. Two teams picked from those present (which included friends of members of the Club) allowed of a very close contest, both sides being fairly evenly matched. Mr. G. H. Summer's team proved the victors by the narrow margin of 8 points, final scores being:—
Mr. Summer's team... 469 points.
Mr. D. Reid's team... 461 points.
Spoons were presented to the winning team by Mr. G. M. Young, who with a few well chosen words made it quite clear that he expected great things from the Club during the coming season. It was also proposed by several members that the member whose score was highest should be presented with a spoon as although he had a splendid 88 to his credit he was unfortunately on the losing side. A spoon was therefore presented to Mr. D. Reid for his very creditable score. Taikoo should do well during the coming season, several young members having joined the Club, which is for the most part composed of ex-service men from all branches of the forces.

Chan Wing-wa was brought before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court this morning on a charge of demanding money—$10—from a woman named Yiu Kiu, Hok Un Kok, Hung-hom, on October 16, by false pretences, purporting that he was a Public Works officer and in a position to issue a permit for the construction of her house at Hok Un Kok would not be demolished by the Government, with intent to defraud. The case was adjourned to today.

RIOTS IN MANILA.

ANTI-CHINESE OUTBREAK IN PHILIPPINES.

TROUBLE UNDER CONTROL.

(Reuter's Service.)

MANILA, October 20. One Chinese was killed and two policemen and 13 Chinese seriously wounded in Filipino anti-Chinese riots on Saturday and Sunday.

Five hundred police and reserves are on duty; and it is believed the trouble is under control. This morning there was similar rioting in the outskirts of Manila.

No reports have been received from the provinces.

INTERPORT CRICKET.

TEAM FROM MALAYA SELECTED.

A STRONG COMBINATION.

Mr. L. S. Greenhill, honorary secretary of the H.K.C.C., has courteously sent to the "China Mail" further details about the interport cricket teams. According to the latest information the following team may be expected here in November to represent the Straits Settlements and the Federated Malay States:—

A. E. Holmes Brown, E. W. N. Wyatt, — Porter, G. M. Brand, N. Grenier, — Edwards, P. N. Knight, Lieut. R. A. Phayre, R. A. (Royal Sussex Regt.), N. H. P. White, Flight Lieut. Livock, E. J. Riches, A. S. Jeff (Umpire), — Crawford (Scorer).

Grenier has been to Hongkong at least twice before, viz. 1909 and 1920. On October 1, when the first list was given, I wrote:—

Grenier is dazzling, if not quite infallible, as third man and his work in the outfield is exemplary so Hongkong batsmen should look out.

Appropos his interport record, my colleague "Argus" tells me that they both played in their first interport match in 1899—Perak v. Selangor—when they turned out for the former state. Grenier was a lad of about 16 or 17 and gossip was busy about his playing in short pants but he obtained the pants and incidentally made a lot of runs and shone in the field.

Wyatt has also visited us before, probably also in 1909. Unless he has been confused with somebody of the same name he is likely to prove a more-than-useful left-handed bowler. The person referred to has been the mainstay of the Selangor attack for years. Lieut. Phayre is either a Woolwich or Sandhurst man and has played in Army representative matches.

Without the initials one cannot be too sure of Livock but "Wisden" gives the name of a Mr. G. E. Livock who kept wicket and scored 12 not out and 0 for Lord Cowdray's XI v. the Rest of England at Hastings in September last year. As Lord Cowdray has been, or is, President of the Air Board and Livock is a Flight Lieutenant, the inference is that G. E. Livock and Lieut. Livock are one and the same man.

In the 1920 match in which Hongkong were beaten by 30 odd runs, Grenier and Riches opened both innings for the visitors. Grenier made 10 and 0, Riches 62 and 3. Holmes Brown was also here and he went in third wicket down to score 56 and 2. Bowling figures were as follows:—

First Innings—Holmes Brown 23 overs (out of 27 bowled from his end) 2 maidens, 78 runs and 2 wickets. Riches was the bowler who completed the 27 overs from that side, his analysis being 34 overs, 10 runs, 3 wickets.

Second Innings—Riches and Holmes Brown again undertook the attack (who is not coming this time, went on unchanged at the other). Analyses—Riches 23 overs, 3 maidens, 65 runs, 5 wickets. Holmes Brown 6 overs, 31 runs, no wicket.

Memory fails me as to what kind of bowler Riches is but I am told that Holmes Brown is a medium paced, right-handed bowler, with plenty of spin from the off.

YOUNG THIEF.

THREE MONTHS' JAIL FOR STEALING.

Before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court this morning a Chinese lad named Chan Yung, aged 18 years was charged with theft of one metal wrist-watch and $7.75. He was sentenced to three months' hard labour. Li Chik-ko, preserved plum dealer, a boy aged 16 years, of Reclamation Street, stated that he and a companion were walking along the road near No. 3 Railway Bridge, when the accused came from behind a tree threatened to stab him with a dagger, and removed from him a wrist one metal watch and from his jacket pocket $7.75. A few minutes after the robbery, he met two Chinese detectives, made a report and the defendant was arrested.

SHADOWS OVER CANTON.

FIGHTING FOR THE SPOILS.

STRUGGLE ALONG RAILWAY.

Attention in Canton now is concentrated, not so much as to whether the Merchants Volunteers will offer more fight, but on reconstruction work, i.e., resumption of the city's interrupted trade. However, two shadows loom on the horizon. One is the chance of the Government troops fighting the Yunnanese mercenaries for possession of the spoils and the privilege of harassing the civil population and secondly the reports of fighting along the Kowloon-Canton Railway, not far from the metropolis.

Our special correspondent writing at 1 p.m. yesterday, denies that further fighting has taken place although the Government troops and the Yunnanese faction are on the qui vive. The latter are zealously guarding the remains of burnt streets in the Western Suburb and the Government troops are trying to oust them. Dr. Sun's immediate subordinates are trying to find a peaceful solution.

Fighting, which can at best be only described as some spirited skirmishing, has been reported from outside the east of the city. Rumours were that General Chan Kwong-ming's forces were marching on the city but later on the attackers were said to be railway bandits who had flourished Chan's banner, pretending to be anti-Sun regulars. Latest reports say that the attackers were repulsed. Nevertheless, well-informed people state that Chan is advancing and that he has been materially assisted by natives of districts through which his forces have passed. Another report hints that only a small body of pro-Chan troops are advancing up the Railway.

Strike Still On.

Although the merchants have been crushed the strike is still on. As the merchants are conspicuous by their absence, it may be that the strike continues because they dare not return to their shops or that their staffs are still away with the "retreating" Volunteers. At any rate, the Government is most anxious that shops should reopen, hence the report of alleged threats that unless doors are reopened the shops and whatever stocks may be in them, will be turned over to the tender mercies of the Labourers' Volunteers.

House-to-house searches are still being made but looting has practically subsided. People are still fleeing, in thousands, presumably, for fear that further fighting may occur. Another rumour is that the pro-Government Cantonese troops are demanding a fine $500 from each shop that included "Volunteers" on its staff, while commanders of all degrees have been marked for fines ranging to fabulous amounts.

Patshan is still on strike but like the Ambs, the local Volunteers have picked up their tents and stolen away by night.

About 2,000 long and short arms have been seized.

Grave View Held.

That a grave view of the future is taken is evident from the sending up to Shunmen from Hongkong of two officers and 50 rank and file from the Grenadiers Regiment, with machine-guns. This detachment sailed yesterday by the "Kinshun" and will be used, ostensibly, to guard Shunmen from evil designs—its value having been increased by virtue of the amount of property rushed into the Settlement—and to prevent rowdies getting over the bridges.

Refugees are still pouring down from Canton.

In an extra issued yesterday, the "Tai Kwong Po" (Hongkong) says that as property in the Western Suburb, either belonging to foreigners, or foreign insurers, or companies, has been destroyed, inspection has been made. Reports have been handed in to the British, American, French and Japanese Consuls with requests that necessary action be taken, says the same venacular paper.

Leung And Sun.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Paklai, Kowmoon, Oct. 19. Much concern is felt here for the merchants in Canton. Interest is increased because a similar situation may prevail here. However, we have been more or less pacified by an alleged declaration, by General Leung Hung-kai that he will refuse to carry out any orders from Dr. Sun Yat-sen, should same be given, to disarm the Merchants Volunteers in this locality.

General Leung is the military autocrat of the four (Sze Yap) districts. Even as cock of the walk he finds it advisable to be on good terms with the merchants. Accordingly, he has withdrawn 2,000 men from up-country stations and concentrated them at Sunwui city. Kowmoon city is on strike, the streets having the deserted appearance familiar at China New Year.

It has been said of our local military dictator that he is biding his time during the present crisis and that should Dr. Sun and his henchman, General Hsu Shung-chi, be ousted from power, he will prepare to carry on.

Some of the native bankers have taken panic and are feverishly sending away all bullion and specie to Hongkong. On Friday last, one lot comprising 38 boxes each containing $2,000 Canton silver subsidiary coin, was shipped away and more followed.

From Kowkong comes the report of the mobilisation of 400 Merchant Volunteers who have declared their intention of reinforcing their colleagues defeated in Canton. Shekki is quiet but all river transport between Canton and this part of the delta has ceased.

COMPANY MEETING.

CHINA SUGAR SHARES NOW TWENTY-FIVES.

At the third extraordinary general meeting of the China Sugar Refining Company Ltd., held this morning, there were present: Messrs B. D. F. Reith, Chairman, H. P. White and C. G. Mackie, directors, E. B. C. Hornell, Secretary, W. E. L. Shenton, Solicitor, G. M. Shaw, Manager, and the following shareholders: Messrs. H. F. Kirk, Choa Po-sien, F. M. P. de Graa, Ho Leung, Ho Shai-kit, H. E. Hollands, Lo Man-hin, C. Savard Remedios, and J. F. Wright.

After the Secretary had read that part of the notice which concerned the meeting the Chairman said: As indicated in the part of the Notice which has just been read by the Secretary, the meeting has been convened for the purpose of receiving a report of the proceedings at the Second Extraordinary General Meeting of this Company held on the 3rd instant in so far as regards Resolution No. 3 set out in the Notice convening such Second Extraordinary General Meeting which was passed as an Extraordinary Resolution at that meeting and of confirm it, if thought fit, such Resolution as a Special Resolution. That Resolution, as you know, concerned the division of each of the existing 20,000 fully paid up shares of $100 each into 4 fully paid up shares of $25 each.

You will recollect that at the Second Extraordinary General Meeting the reason which actuated the Consulting Committee in bringing forward the Resolution in question, and I do not consider it necessary to dwell further thereon, was that the Company's capital of $2,000,000 had been divided into four fully paid up shares of $25 each so as to make such capital $2,000,000 consisting of 80,000 fully paid up shares of $25 each.

Mr. T. Kirk then seconded the resolution and it was unanimously carried.

STRUCK WRONG MAN.

ALLEGED ATTEMPT AT POCKET-PICKING.

CONSTABLE AS COMPLAINANT.

"I don't know if it is any worse to steal from a constable than from anybody else, especially if the constable is in plain clothes," observed Mr. C. A. S. Russ to Mr. R. E. Lindsay at the Magistrate's Court this morning. After a pause His Worship replied "Well, he has more chance of being caught."

Mr. Russ appeared to defend a Chinese charged with attempting to pick the pocket of a constable. His Worship had fixed a day for hearing. Mr. Russ had suggested bail which Divisional Inspector T. Cashman opposed. Mr. Russ then made the remark quoted and the case was put back with defendant in custody.

Meeting the Resolution was unanimously passed as an Extraordinary Resolution, and that in order to comply with the Companies Ordinance, it is necessary that such Resolution shall be confirmed as a Special Resolution. I accordingly beg to propose the confirmation as a Special Resolution of the said Resolution, namely, (3) That each of the existing 20,000 fully paid up shares of $100 each constituting the Company's present capital of $2,000,000 be divided into four fully paid up shares of $25 each so as to make such capital $2,000,000 consisting of 80,000 fully paid up shares of $25 each.

Mr. T. Kirk then seconded the resolution and it was unanimously carried.

Tai Tung (Brassmakers) Street, also known as the Tai Ping (Peaceful) Street, belies its name. The hose was brought over the Tai Ping Bridge from the Maloo.

ELECTION SPEECHES. JOINT ONSLAUGHT ON LABOUR. PROBABLE INCREASE IN PETTICOAT RULE.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, October 18. A week of oratory shows that the Conservatives, whose hopes of a victory are very high, are vigorously attacking the Labour Government on patriotic grounds. Mr. Winston Churchill yesterday giving the slogan "Red Flag versus Union Jack," which was repeated with variations on Conservative platforms.

There are anti-Labour demonstrations throughout the country. Pictures of Russian Bolsheviks carrying bags of British money are the most conspicuous feature of the innumerable Conservative electioneering posters.

Lord Birkenhead, who is most actively supporting Mr. Churchill as a Constitutional Unionist, improved on Mr. Churchill's phrase, "No money for murderers," while the Liberals are also eloquent on the grave consequences of the Russian Treaty, in connection with which Sir John Simon declared, "The Labour Government has met its Waterloo."

Mr. Lloyd George told his hearers that they were being asked to give thirty millions sterling to Russia "where knives spring from the ground to tear the flesh of humanity."

"CHURCHILL THE BAPTIST."

This joint Conservative and Liberal onslaught on Labour has been productive of a rapprochement between two traditionally opposed old parties unprecedented in British politics. In some cases Conservative and Liberal candidates shook hands publicly, and Lord Birkenhead in the course of his denunciation said, "After the disastrous period of Socialist Government, I wish from the bottom of my heart success to that patriotic Englishman, Mr. Asquith, at Paisley."

On the other hand Mr. Walsh, the Secretary of State for War, denounced Mr. Asquith as "Peck-sniff," while Mr. Philip Snowden, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, charged Mr. Lloyd George with playing a deep political game and predicted that if the Conservatives were returned with a small majority the country would find itself governed by a party led by Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. Winston Churchill and Lord Birkenhead, with Mr. Asquith excluded. Mr. Snowden further described Mr. Churchill as the John the Baptist of another Liberal-Tory coalition.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald at Barry asked his opponents to make "a decent intellectual fight instead of sniffling like mangy dogs in a dungheap."

LIBERALS SELL THEIR SOULS.

That the Liberals are selling their souls is the theme of the Labour platform, where defence of the Russian Treaty and pride in the Government's achievements at home and abroad, are the keynotes of the speakers.

Mr. John Wheatley, Minister of Health, described his opponents' utterances on the subject of unemployment as "sheer impertinence," and declared that unemployment was the direct result of the capitalist regime. He predicted that unemployment alone in a few years time would lead to the return to Westminster of a Socialist Government pledged to establish a new social order in the most rapid way possible.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, in his election address, appeals for support for a Government, which will "realise the dream of a co-operative commonwealth of service."

A novel feature of the election campaign has been the broad-casting of the speeches of the three leaders. Mr. MacDonald was most unfortunate in this respect, his oratorical methods at Glasgow causing much wireless distortion.

Mr. Asquith, at Paisley, apparently kept closer to the microphone, but heckling and interruptions by the audience murred the effect.

Mr. Baldwin was most successful because he spoke from the London Broadcasting Studio.

DISARMAMENT AND PEACE.

Mr. MacDonald, in his election address, claims that he took a bold step towards disarmament and peace at Geneva. Parliament would be asked after the election to agree to an arrangement to enlist the world prevention of war and limitation of armaments. Government departments were now working in close contact with representatives of the employers and workers for the most affected industries and a representative industrial Board of Trade had been appointed, also a representative Industrial Committee, to completely survey the present position of British industry with a view to action to safeguard our position.

Speaking at Leeds, Mr. Philip Snowden declared that he was unaware of the amount of the proposed Russian loan. He declared that if he was Chancellor when the question arose, there would be no loan to Russia and no loan to any foreign State, except upon substantial security, which would make default practically impossible.

Mr. Snowden at Rochdale said that if there were a setback to the Labour movement at this election, the consequences would be disastrous to the working class movement of the world. He predicted that Labour would do better than at any previous election.

Mr. J. H. Thomas, Secretary of State for the Colonies, at Wakefield said when opponents boasted that Labour would be wiped out they were like little boys walking in a churchyard whistling to keep up their courage. He warned Liberals that by combining with the Conservatives against the people's party they were encouraging class hatred.

WOMEN CANDIDATES.

There has been a notable increase in the number of women candidates at the coming elections, which has swelled from sixteen in 1918 and 31 last December, to 45-12 Conservatives, seven Liberals, 21 Socialists and one Independent.

Nominations are completed except for the English combined University and the Wales University. There are thirty-two unopposed returns, 16 Conservatives, nine Labourites, six Liberals and one Nationalist.

THE CAMPBELL CASE.

Speaking at Aberystwyth, Mr. MacDonald said that no pressure for the withdrawal of the Campbell prosecution was exerted on, or by him. Nothing done in that connection was illegitimate. He was personally against the withdrawal, but the matter was left to the Attorney-General.

Riga, October 19.

Mr. Zinovieff in a remarkable speech at Moscow regarding Mr. MacDonald's premiership, expressed the Bolshevik heart-felt RUGBY FOOTBALL. HONGKONG CLUB DEFEAT NAVY TEAM.

A capital exposition of Rugby football was witnessed on the Hongkong Football Club's ground, Saturday afternoon, when the Club met a Navy fifteen. The game was closely contested from start to finish and though the Club led by 6 points to nil, till near the end, the Navy obtained a try eventually, which was converted. Some good forward rushes, and nice clean passing was witnessed. Beveridge crossed the line for the Club in the first half, but the try was not converted. In the second half, Forsyth scored a pretty try from a kick across and Campbell only just failed to convert.

Within a few minutes of time, a well-conceived movement—which started from a scrum on the line—in which all the naval three-quarters were conspicuous, and a fine cut-in resulted in a try for the navy which was converted. The final score thus read:
Club XV (2 tries) 6 points.
Navy XV (1 goal) 5 points.
The Club team was: Richmond; Skinner, Campbell, Foster, Easterbrook; Shovelton; Cox; Forsyth, Davies, Lee, Groves, Beveridge, Jordan, Patterson, Lavan.

desire for continuance of Mr. MacDonald's administration, because it was under the pressure of Revolutionary Labour. He asserted that Mr. MacDonald's so-called followers had forced him to resign the Russian treaties and release Campbell. M. Zinovieff declared it was now unnecessary to send agitators abroad, because enemies like MacDonald had become their best agitators.

CINEMA DISPLAY.

M. Zinovieff's speech, which was accompanied by laughter, described Mr. MacDonald's situation as affording the "finest cinema display for us on the international political screen." He taunted Mr. MacDonald with the statement on the eve of acceptance of the Premiership that he was determined to have no monkey tricks from Moscow. Mr. MacDonald was now fighting with his back to the wall, and must find serious arguments in favour of Bolshevism and wily nifty plead Moscow's cause to defend Campbell.

Nomination day passed off pretty free of incident in bright sunny weather. There was the usual crop of last minute surprises, mainly provided by the Labourites, who put forward candidates where it had been expected there would only be a fight between Conservatives and Labourites, and consequently the three-cornered fights, namely 225, are more numerous than anticipated otherwise would be. There will be Conservative versus Liberal contests in fifty-one constituencies, Conservatives versus Labour in 247, Liberal versus Labour in 541, and four or more cornered fights in three. Ten Sinn Féiners have been nominated in Ulster.

There are thirty-nine women candidates. No fewer than seven Quakers are standing, of whom thirteen are Labourites. A very surprising withdrawal was the Irish Nationalist, Mr. Joseph Devlin, who intended to put up against Sir Leslie Scott, former Conservative Solicitor-General, at Liverpool. The latter consequently had a walk over. Mr. Neville Chamberlain at the last moment defected to the Labour cause, in addition to the Marquess Curzon's son-in-law, Mr. Oswald Mosley, a Labourite, who formerly sat for Harrow as Conservative. The nominations total 1,405.

INTERPORT GOLF.

HONGKONG v. MANILA.

HOME TEAM'S VICTORY.

The sun shone out in all his glory on Saturday, and provided delightful conditions for the first day of the two days' Interport Golf matches at Paoing, between the Royal Hongkong Golf Club and the representatives of Manila.

The result of the first day's play was a runaway win for the Hongkong side, in the Singles every match being won by a home player except that between Mr. E. J. R. Mitchell (Hongkong) and Lieut. G. W. Read (Manila), which provided particularly exciting golf, the players running neck and neck all the way, and finishing all square at the 36th hole.

Each of the six pairs played 18 holes in the morning, and the remainder in the afternoon.

On paper, the most interesting match when play started on Saturday morning, appeared to be that between Mr. A. B. Stewart, former champion of Hongkong, and Mr. T. W. Bennett, the crack player of Manila. And it actually did produce some thrilling golf, though in some respects it was not as notable a game as the Ferguson-Mason contest a little later.

Ivory took the first hole, and Stewart the second. He was two up at the 7th tee. There he pulled his driver rather badly, leaving his ball in a nasty lie in the rough. Ivory drove a nice straight ball, and looked like taking this hole, but Stewart recovered splendidly with his masher, to win it in 3. At the end of the first round Stewart stood 4 up on his opponent.

In the afternoon, Stewart was again rather too good for Ivory, and won his match by 7 up and 6 to play.

Some really remarkable play was seen in the match between Mr. Ferguson (Hongkong) and Mr. A. H. Mason (Manila).

The latter, in the morning, made a noteworthy beginning by doing the first eight holes in bogey, and the 12th, 14th, 15th and 16th in one under. At the end of the first round, Ferguson was 4 up.

Few put up a fine fight in the afternoon, playing brilliant golf, but his British opponent still held the upper hand, and won by 5 up and 3 to play.

The other results were: Mr. I. H. Shewan (Hongkong) beat Mr. Mason (Manila) by 12 and 11.

Mr. R. A. Camidge (Hongkong) beat Lieut. Vanaman (Manila) by 10 and 9.

Mr. E. J. R. Mitchell (Hongkong) and Lieut. G. W. Read (Manila) finished all square.

This was a singularly close and exciting game throughout, as will be seen by the results of various holes-in-turn, as show below:

Capt. T. W. Bennett (H.A.) (Hongkong) beat Mr. Jamieson (Manila) by 8 up and 7 to play.

The Hongkong partners will be as follows: A. B. Stewart and I. W. Shewan, A. H. Ferguson and R. A. Camidge, and T. W. Bennett and E. J. R. Mitchell.

Yesterday's Play.

In the foursomes, played yesterday, the home team won all matches.

The visitors started full of keenness. The first four to go out were Messrs. Stewart and Shewan (Hongkong) and Ferguson and Read (Manila). The first hole was halved, and the home players took the second. The third was halved, and the fourth fell to Hongkong. Stewart was showing very fine form, driving with great length and admirable judgment in a troublesome wind, which grew slightly stronger as the day advanced.

A marked feature of this game was the splendid golf played almost throughout by Ferguson. He was none too lucky at times, but he showed a remarkable knowledge of the game in all its departments, and his confidence never left him.

Read showed up excellently at times, notably in the afternoon, when he won the 26th hole for his side by sinking a putt of at least eight yards from the corner of the green.

This match fell eventually to the Hongkong side by 7 up and 5 to play.

Ferguson was again the great form when, partnered by Camidge, he went out to play Messrs. Ivory and Mason. Handicaps were almost all beautiful on the line, and all judgment of "wind carry" in driving and approaching, was beyond praise. He was the outstanding figure of the two days' play, and yesterday was mainly responsible for the defeat of Ivory and Mason by 9 and 7.

CRICKET.

DISAPPOINTING TRIAL GAME ON SATURDAY.

OTHER RESULTS.

The main cricket fixture on Saturday was the inter-port trial game between sides captained by T. E. Pearce and A. E. Wood on the H.K.C.C. ground. The former team batted first and with the exception of Jotham, Kent and Evans gave a very sorry display. It is true that Finch's 24 included two consecutive hits for six off Jacobs, but with the exception of those named, the batsmen seemed content to allow the ball to hit the bat.

The wicket was so dead that it gave no help to the bowlers and runs should have been easy to obtain if only a little "more wood" had been put behind the strokes.

The total reached 123 after approximately two hours' batting. Five out of the ten batsmen retired and as Omar was not out, there is no need to stress the disadvantage, under which the bowlers suffered.

Bowler took two wickets for 10 and Wallington and Jacobs one each for 13 and 16 respectively.

Wood's eleven put a little more life into the game, scoring 105 in slightly better time. S. H. Ismail retired with 19 to his credit, McNicholl with 16 and Bowker with not out 16. Webster, after a shaky beginning, made some good shots before being run out.

Of the bowlers, Arculli was most effective with three wickets for 24.

The fielding on both sides was weak, to say the least of it, and dropped catches and runs from overthrows were too frequent to be passed over, towards the end of the day's play.

To sum up, the game has demonstrated the willingness of the selection committee to give almost everyone a trial—and almost everyone playing on Saturday failed to prove his qualification for further consideration.

Whether the cause was due to nervousness it is impossible to say, but initiative between the wickets was entirely lacking as was the art of backing up, with but few exceptions. Cricketers, who watched the game, will readily be able to sift the wheat from the chaff; and there the matter must rest for the time. Scores and analyses follow:—

K.C.C. II. v. A.P.C.

The A.P.C., who have this season entered the cricket ranks for the first time, journeyed across to Kowloon and won a decisive victory by 139 runs with five wickets to spare.

The main feature of the play was A. W. Ramsey's 114 (retired), a brilliant display of consistent all round batting, in which he gave few chances.

The K.C.C. playing with a weak eleven, on account of another match at the University, could only muster 66 of which Earnshaw contributed 29 not out. Scores follow:—

OBITUARY.

SIR PERCY SCOTT.

(Reuter's Service.)

LONDON, October 18. The death is announced of Admiral Sir Percy Scott, K.C.B., K.C.V.O., C.V.O., C.B. [Admiral Sir Percy Scott was born on July 10, 1853. He entered the Navy at the age of 13, and was made Captain in 1893, receiving the rank of Admiral in 1913. He served in the Ashanti War, 1873-74; Congo Expedition, 1875; Egyptian War, 1882; South Africa, 1899-1900. He served on the Ordnance Committee, on the Committee on Naval Uniforms and the Naval Exhibition Committee; he was the inventor of the night signalling apparatus now used in the Royal Navy and of various appliances for improving heavy gun shooting; he invented the gun carriages which enabled 6-inch and 4.7-inch guns to be used in South Africa. He retired in 1913 and was in charge of the gunnery defences of London against aircraft attacks, 1915-16. The late Admiral combined an inventive genius with a gift of humour. It was he who rushed the big naval guns up to defend Lady Smith by inventing special carriages for them. Without these weapons Sir George White could never have held out. Later his passion for practical efficiency led to the famous "paint" before gunnery signal that caused the row with Admiral Sir Charles Beresford. Sir Percy's enthusiasm for gunnery (rather than the whole standard of the British Fleet) abiding. Since his retirement he concentrated on anti-aircraft propaganda. He showed Fisher's vision of a future flying submarine.]

"ARMS NOT MINE."

BUT STOKER GETS SEVEN YEARS.

C.P.O. CLARKE'S WATCHFULNESS.

The observance by Mr. S. J. Clarke, Chief Preventive Officer, from the ship's deck, of a sack protruding from the port bunker in the stoke-hole, led to the appearance at the Criminal Sessions this morning of Leung Sze, a stoker, on a charge of unlawful possession of arms and ammunition.

Mr. T. M. Hazlerigg, Crown Solicitor, prosecuted. Prisoner was not represented. Mr. Hazlerigg said that Chief Preventive Officer S. J. Clarke boarded the "Ning Chow" at 4.30 a.m. on October 3, as it was at the buoy in the harbour. He looked down into the stoke-hole and saw the defendant standing there. A bag was protruding from the port bunker and he went down to investigate. When he got down the defendant, without being questioned, blurted out "those arms are not mine." Three sacks containing arms and ammunition were found by Mr. Clarke. The defendant, who was a stoker on board, told Mr. Clarke that a passenger had entrusted him with the arms and had promised to pay him $20 wages. When charged, he said that the arms were not his and made a statement as to a passenger entrusting him with them on deck. The passenger had then gone ashore. The defendant, in any case, said Mr. Hazlerigg had taken the arms from the deck to the stoke-hole.

Mr. Clarke, Chief Preventive Officer, said there were 37 pistols

Among the passengers who arrived by the s.s. "Suwa Maru" are Mr. W. F. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hazlerigg, Miss R. Hazlerigg, Mr. E. Ralphs, and Miss E. Salisbury.

Dr. J. Kirk, Dr. J. L. Maxwell, Mr. J. N. Owen, Mr. S. P. Simpson and Miss M. Whitmer were passengers on the s.s. "Patroclus" which arrived at Hongkong from Shanghai to-day.

A number of Naval officers left by the s.s. "Morea" on Saturday including Lt. Comdr. J. A. Hamilton, Lieut. A. E. Horrell, the Rev. Father Purcell, Col. A. N. Hipsey, Lieut. S. W. Lushington and Comdr. J. Kingcome.

and nearly 1,000 rounds of ammunition in the sacks. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and sentence of seven years imprisonment was passed.
